

Robert Donald Keith

---

1909 - 1918

Education

- Aberdeen Grammar School
- M.A.(Aberdeen Uni.)
- M.B., CH.B. with honours (Aberdeen Uni.)
- M.D. with honours (Aberdeen Uni.)
- Awarded Carnegie Research Scholarship and studied at Leipzig and Tubingen.

Career

- circa 1904 Spent several months as an assistant to one of the leading private practitioners in Aberdeenshire
- 1908 Physiologist and assistant pathologist, Medical School, Singapore
- 1909-1918 Principal, Medical School, Singapore

Offices held

- In 1908, he proceeded to Manila as representative for the Colony at the Philippine Islands Medical Association.
- Joined the 1st Volunteer battalion Gordon Highlanders while he was a student.
- 1911 Surgeon Lieutenant, Singapore Volunteer Corps
- 1912 Surgeon Captain, Singapore Volunteer Corps
- 1912-1918 Captain, Singapore Volunteer Corps
- Member, Straits Settlements and Federated Malay States Medical Council
- Member, Straits Branch, Royal Asiatic Society
- Council, Straits Branch, Royal Asiatic Society

Honours

- Won a number of class prizes during his University career, including gold medals in surgery, medicine and midwifery.